We are pleased to announce that Dr. Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, author of the groundbreaking book Flow and an early proponent of the positive psychology movement, will be the keynote speaker at the Building a Strengths-Based Campus Conference in June. He is a professor at the University of California, Claremont, has spent more than 25 years researching flow, a state of “intense emotional involvement” and timelessness that comes from doing what you do best and immersive and challenging activities. Csikszentmihalyi is the 2009 Clifton Strengths Prize Award winner and will be honored at a reception during the conference.

Click here to register, or visit www.strengthsquest.com on the Events & Training tab by clicking the date field. The conference fee, if registered prior to May 1, 2009, is $325 (U.S.); after May 1, 2009, the fee is $375 (U.S.). Please feel free to forward to colleagues on your campus. We hope you'll join us!
